

QUICK TIPS NEW GRILL TIPS

#GRILLON

Bringing home a new Weber grill can be a bit like bringing home a new baby. There's excitement, anticipation, and sometimes confusion. We can't help you with a new baby, but we've got you covered when it comes to a new Weber grill!

TIP 01: READ THE OWNER'S GUIDE

The owner's guide came in the box with your grill or you can locate it on our website by clicking here.

SAFETY INFORMATION – Our top priority is our customer's safety. Your owner's guide contains all the information you need to operate your grill safely.

MAINTENANCE/CLEANING – You just made an investment in a top-of-the-line grill, so be sure to take care of it with proper cleaning and maintenance. Your owner's guide is a great source for troubleshooting tips should you ever have any problems with your grill.

PRODUCT KNOWLEDGE – The owner's guide contains information specific to your grill, like proper preheating times and information about how to use any special features on your grill, such as a sear station or rotisserie.

TIP 02: REGISTER YOUR GRILL

Registering your grill activates the warranty. Protect your investment by getting it getting it covered under warranty as soon as your purchase your grill.

Register your grill so you can easily track online orders and keep tabs on all of your registered Weber grills, including the owner's guide and warranty information.

If you need to contact Customer Service, it will help us pinpoint exactly which model grill you own, process your warranty claim much faster, and help you find additional parts or accessories that fit the model of your grill.
